Espresso tonic

Espresso tonic, a non-alcoholic drink made by mixing espresso and tonic water, was first recorded in 2007 and quickly gained popularity in Scandinavia before spreading worldwide. This distinctive glass gives every serving a stylish and memorable look, making it perfect for cafés, bars, or home use. Its elegant silhouette and comfortable grip turn a refreshing espresso tonic into a truly eye-catching experience.

Fun Fact

The espresso tonic was invented by accident! Baristas experimenting with summer iced drinks in Scandinavian cafés during the early 2000s discovered that the bright citrus notes of tonic water paired surprisingly well with the rich bitterness of espresso — creating the refreshing, sparkling drink that's now loved worldwide.
